Why face to face training

- Builds consistency - staff doing the workshops together will all be aware of the Industry standard and “on the same page”
- Sharpens focus - trainers can focus on specific Residence concerns, discuss issues and refer to the relevant Residence policies directly
- Tailors pace - trainers can recognise staff prior experience and suit the pace of the training to the group
- Facilitates completion - committing a specific block of time helps staff stay focussed, and progress more efficiently through the course
